Front Cover: The Diocese of Dublin is an urban Diocese. The Diocese of Glendalough is, by contrast, a more rural Diocese with some large towns and commuter villages. It also contains some of the finest scenery in the country in the Wicklow Mountains National Park. Our cover picture is taken from the flanks of Djouce looking towards the Wicklow mountains with Lough Tay in the foreground.

In the United Dioceses of Dublin and Glendalough, we are fortunate annually to be provided with The Diocesan Directory. This slim volume offers us useful information about a whole range of matters that span diocesan life on a regular basis. Such information facilitates a smooth-running and well-informed diocese where people know what they are doing. In all of this, we are greatly facilitated by the efficiency of work done within the Diocesan Office on behalf of all and for the benefit of all.

The Directory makes it possible for any of us to find our way with ease around parish and diocesan life, whether it be details of Nursing and Residential Homes or Church Music Dublin or any other number of interesting things. We are also able to access information about parishes and clergy, Diocesan Readers and Parish Organists along with chaplains in a very wide range of institutions that lie within our diocesan boundaries, not least our vibrant and dynamic universities.

None of this would be possible were it not for the attention to detail and tireless energy of the Editor, the Reverend Nigel Waugh and the ready participation of our generous Advertisers and Sponsors. Over the years, the Diocesan Directory has grown in scale and in scope while still being entirely manageable in size and user-friendly.

In January we begin the long road of a new year that opens before us. The early months seem to journey slowly and then, suddenly, the pace accelerates significantly. Throughout these changes and developments, there is a rhythm of life that is served and serviced by the church. The Diocesan Directory helps us to navigate a journey that is begun under the bright light of Epiphany:

O God, who by the leading of a star manifested your only Son to the peoples of the earth: Mercifully grant that we, who know you now by faith, may at last behold your glory face to face; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

I wish to thank Nigel once again for significant work well done.

From the Editor

I am pleased to offer this small directory to the Diocese once again in the hope that it may be useful in the day-to-day work of the parishes. I am grateful to those who assisted in its compilation: Ruth Burleigh, the Archbishop's secretary; Diocesan Secretaries, Sylvia Heggie and Jennifer Byrne; David McConnell for his work on organists and all the clergy and parish secretaries who responded to my requests for information. The Revd Willie Black also kindly assisted with reading proofs of the information.

As always, this will be a snapshot in time and some details may change during the year. However, the main body of information will still be accurate and it will be possible to use email addresses and telephone information to contact the key people in each parish.

Without the support of the advertisers, this publication would not be possible and I am most grateful to those secondary schools who have helped us once again.

A number of businesses have also placed advertisements. All have a proven record of working with parishes in the dioceses and I commend them to you if you are able to use their services.

As rectors take well-deserved retirements and curates move to take responsibility for running a parish, new personnel take their places. We welcome the Venerable Neal O'Raw as new Archdeacon of Glendalough. We thank those who have served and we send good wishes to those who now continue the varied and important work of serving the Dioceses.

As always, I am grateful to the Archbishop for his continuing support and for his very kind foreword.

Nigel Waugh

Pre-Confirmation Sessions

These sessions will be two hours long and can be arranged directly with the Diocesan Youth Officer.

PRAYER WHICH MAY BE USED DURING PREPARATION FOR CONFIRMATION IN THE UNITED DIOCESES OF DUBLIN & GLENDALOUGH

God, we ask you to show your presence among your people now as they prepare for confirmation. Open their minds to ask questions and their hearts to show kindness.

Give to those who teach and to those who learn an understanding of what it is to follow your Son Jesus Christ more and more, day by day. Strengthen them in their belonging in baptism to the body of Christ. Protect them from all evil and nourish them with the fruits of the Holy Spirit.

Equip them with souls and bodies eager to serve you and their neighbour.

This we ask through Jesus Christ our saviour and our friend.

Michael Jackson, Archbishop of Dublin and Bishop of Glendalough

NOTES FOR CONFIRMATION SERVICES

- The Service is to be found in the 'Liturgy and Music' section of the "Resources" at the bottom of the homepage of the Diocesan Website <http://dublin.anglican.org/liturgy.php> (Note: This order was updated in 2014)
- Please prepare a service sheet from this. A sheet is essential.
- Readings are those set for the Sunday - normally Old Testament, Epistle and Gospel. Any change from this will be advised. Where there is a choice the first option is used, except in exceptional circumstances.
- The first reading should be read, where possible, by a candidate, and the second by another member of the parish. The Gospel MAY APPROPRIATELY be read by a LAY PERSON, priest, deacon, or licensed reader.
- Please do not insert extra hymns or musical items into the Liturgy except during the distribution of the Communion.
- Candidates will NORMALLY be confirmed singly and should carry a name card. (NOT LABELS)
- Dress code should be appropriate and please no hair gel!
- Liturgical colour (where used): WHITE

Photographs: The archbishop will be available for photographs after the service in the church. For group photographs please organise the order at the rehearsal (or at a class prior to the service). Candidates can have an individual and/or family photo with the archbishop. Please arrange this alphabetically to ensure that all candidates can and know when their opportunity for a photo. Where there is a Rural Deanery group confirmation or more than one parish please liaise with the hosting Rector.

Please note: Confirmation Cards and Schedules may be obtained from the Diocesan Office and must be ready for the Archbishop to sign in the vestry before the Confirmation Service.

Collections taken at Confirmation Service are for the Archbishop's Training for Ministry Fund and should be sent to: Secretary to the Archbishop, Church of Ireland House, Church Avenue, Rathmines, Dublin 6. PLEASE SEND IN AS SOON AS POSSIBLE as there are very heavy demands on this fund throughout the year.
